

Alphonse Mucha IN QUEST OF BEAUTY

8 October 2016–19 February 2017

Tickets: Adults £5; concessions and children over 16 £3; under 16s FREE

www.glasgowmuseums.com

Alphonse Mucha: In Quest of Beauty

The exhibition explores the work and legacy of the Czech painter and decorative artist Alphonse Mucha (1860–1939). Through his stylish and beautiful theatrical and advertising posters, the exhibition examines how 'le style Mucha' evolved and became synonymous with the international Art Nouveau style.

It also examines the often-hidden, skilled draughtsmanship behind Mucha's internationally recognisable designs, and explores how his artistic philosophy influenced his later career. Alongside works by Mucha feature several key objects from Glasgow's own collection; artworks that demonstrate the interchange of artistic ideas between Scotland, the rest of the UK, and continental Europe.

The exhibition is also accompanied by a learning programme – see glasgowmuseums.com for more information.

Right: Feather, 1899, by Alphonse Mucha.
© Mucha Trust 2016.

Cover: Zodiac, 1896, by Alphonse Mucha.
© Mucha Trust 2016.

HOW TO GET THERE

By bus: First bus services 2, 3, 19/19A and 747

By subway: Kelvnhall station

By rail: Partick station

By car: Pay and display car park adjacent to museum

